DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 must be ended by a period ".".

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 6-7 and 15-18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,678,046 (Opsal). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-9 of the present invention are broader than what was claimed in claims 6-7 and 15-18 of the patent and all limitations of claims 1-9 are recited in claims 6-7 and 15-18. For example, independent claim 1 of the present invention can be read from claims 6, 16, and 17 of patent; independent claim 5 can be read from claims 6 and 15 of the patent; dependent claims 2 and 7 of the present invention are similar to claim 7 of the patent; dependent claims 3, 4, 8 and 9 are disclosed in claim 18 of the patent; and claim 6 can be read from claim 17 of the patent.

5. The rejection above can overcome by filing a proper Terminal Disclaimer.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter if a proper Terminal Disclaimer is filed:

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

There was no prior art found by the examiner that suggested modification or combination with the cited art so as to satisfy the combination of all the limitations in claims 1 and 5.

As to claim 1, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render limitations "a processor for calculating the different between the sum of the output signals of elements lying along a first pair of orthogonal axes and the difference between the sum of the output signals of elements lying a second pair of orthogonal axes disposed at a 45 degree azimuthal angle with respect to the first pair of axes", in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 1.

As to claim 5, the prior art of record, taken alone or in combination, fails to disclose or render limitations "a processor for correlating the individual output signals from the detector elements to specific angles of incidence and a plurality of azimuthal positions, said azimuthal positions including two orthogonal axes and at least two more azimuthal positions intermediate the orthogonal axes", in combination with the rest of the limitations of claim 5.
